4) In accordance with past precedents, I would suggest that Mr Guru Dutt may be given a deputation allowance of 1/8 of his salary.

5) As regards the Asst Secy Mr Varadarajan, it is noted that his pay is Rs 125/- and the deputation allowance calculated on the above basis would be Rs 25/- but he would get Rs 150/- Whether this arrangement may be sanctioned or whether any special pay should be given to him is a matter for orders.

Letter No. 7/4. A. D. dated 8th July 1939 from the Comptroller to Govt. requesting whether the deputation allowance of Rs 75/- sanctioned to Mr Gurun Dutt as Secy of the Reforms Committee, be allowed to him in addition to his pay as Dy Comr. so long as he continues to be on special duty.

When Mr K. Gurun Dutt was appointed Secretary to the Committee on Constitutional Reforms, he was only a Senior Asst. Comr. drawing a pay of Rs 550/- in grade Rs 500-50/2-600. As Secy to the Committee he was allowed to draw his grade pay as Sr. Asst. Comr. plus a deputation allowance of Rs 75/- p.m.

Mr Gurun Dutt has since been promoted to act as Dy. Comr. and continued in his present appointment during the period of employment of Mr Md. Ismail Sheriff as Ag. Dy Comr. Mr Ismail left took charge of the office of the Dy. Comr., Chittagong A2 on the forenoon of 14th June 1939 and the promotion of Mr Gurun Dutt as Dy. Comr. comes into effect from this date.

Under the present orders the appointment of Secy to the Committee ceases with effect from 31st July 1939, on which date, Mr Gurun Dutt will revert to the general line. Mr Gurun Dutt has, therefore, to be treated as Dy. Comr on other duty as Secy to ~~Govt~~ the Committee from 14th June to 31st July 1939 i.e. for a period of one month and 18 days.

The point for orders is whether mr Gurusami may be allowed to draw the Deputation allowance of Rs 75/- in addition to his pay as Dy. Comr. between 15th May and 31st July 1939. The order of Govt. states that the allowance is to be given for the period of employment on Special Duty. Draft letter to the comptroller is put up for orders.

The Duty allowance of Rs. 75/- was sanctioned when he was Senior Assistant Commissioner and drawing a pay of Rs. 550.

The grant of duty allowance is justifiable when an officer occupying a relatively lower post is called upon to discharge duties that would justify the employment of an experienced officer of a more senior status outside the normal scope of his work. & which duties are also

He has drawn this allowance for a very long period (more than a year) and recently he has been allowed the benefit of promotion to the Deputy Commissioner's grade and has thus got an increase in salary by Rs. 250. Sanction of duty allowance in addition to the higher pay of the Deputy Commissioner does not appear to be quite necessary.

I think in this case where an officer who was entitled in the usual course as Dy. Comr. is retained by Govt.

on special duty for reasons of efficiency he should not be transferred. The selection was made not with a view to the cost involved so much as with a view to select a suitable person for the work. Even if Mr Gunn did not have D.C. when the work was taken up, I have no doubt his name would have been considered for the work. He has worked hard and well and I would not deprive him of the allowance otherwise due.

I agree with C. Secy.
Mr Gunn Hall is engaged on work of a most responsible & arduous nature & he is doing it extraordinarily well. I do not like him to feel that it was on this occasion fully.
